

KUNDABUNG DREAM NOW COMES TRUE

For over twenty years the residents of Kundabung have been dreaming about a new Recreation Hall, and that dream was fully realised on October 3, when a fine new Hall was officially opened at Kundabung.

The idea of building this hall was conceived in the days when people of the calibre of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Churchwood, Mr. and Mrs. Pestell, Mr. and Mrs. Scaysbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Haywood, Mr. and Mrs. Paddy Mayhew, and Mr. and Mrs. Mick O'Leary were the pillars of Kundabung progress, and the younger generation can be thankful of the toil and effort they put into Kundabung's pioneering days.

The commodious hall, officially opened by Mr. L. C. Jordan, M.L.A., is a fine monument to community effort, backed by stout hearts, vision and pertinacity.

A delightful dance was held to mark the opening night, and the hall was most artistically and elaborately decorated for the occasion, large vases of lovely flowers lining the stage.

Messrs. Eric Holdsworth and Retsell acted as M.C.'s, and music was supplied by Messrs. E. Holdsworth, J. McCarron, M. White and Mrs. Betty Studman.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Jordan were accompanied by Mrs. Gash, of Port Macquarie, and were welcomed by Mr. Warren Everson, Mrs. O'Leary and Mrs. W. Mayhew.

Also in the official party were Mrs. W. Blackwell, of Austral Eden, and Mrs. W. F. Atkinson, of Telegraph Point.

Mr. Warren Everson apologised for the unavoidable absence of Mrs. E. Hunt and Mrs. A. Rosenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Haywood, and Mr. and Mrs. Churchwood.

Mr. Everson referred to the 20 years of yeoman service given by the Secretary, Mr. Scaysbrook, and also paid a high tribute to the work of Mrs. Scaysbrook; and Mr. Scaysbrook was given a great cheer when he announced that the new hall was completely free of debt.

Mrs. Jordan was presented with a lovely posy of red roses and carnations; and Mrs. Gash with a shoulder-spray of pink carnations, made by Mrs. Blackwell, senior.

Mr. Scaysbrook paid a warm tribute to the work of Mr. and Mrs. Paddy Mayhew, Mr. Cam Rudder and others previously mentioned.

Mr. Jordan, in cutting the white ribbon which stretched across the stage, congratulated all concerned on their fine achievement.

Among the large attendance were visitors from Sydney, Brisbane, Hastings and Macleay.

Messrs. Alexandria and Harvey were capable doorkeepers. A delightful supper was served by Mesdames D. V. Everson, W. Everson, Scaysbrook, Alexander, Harvey and Blackwell.

KUNDABUNG DREAM NOW COMES TRUE

For over twenty years the residents of Kundabung have been dreaming about a new Recreation Hall, and that dream was fully realised on October 3, when a fine new Hall was officially opened at Kundabung.

The idea of building this hall was conceived in the days when people of the calibre of Mr & Mrs Albert Rosenbaum, Mr & Mrs Churchwood, Mr & Mrs Pestell, and Mr & Mrs Scaysbrook, Mr & Mrs Haywood, Mr & Mrs Paddy Mayhew, and Mr & Mrs Mick O'Leary were the pillars of Kundabung progress and the younger generation can be thankful of the toil and effort they put into Kundabung's pioneering days.

The commodious hall, officially opened by Mr L C Jordan, M.L.A., is a fine monument to community effort, backed by stout hearts, vision and pertinacity.

A delightful dance was held to mark the opening night, and the hall was most artistically and elaborately decorated for the occasion, large vases of lovely flowers lining the stage.

Messrs Eric Holdsworth and Retsell acted as M.C.'s, and music was supplied by Messrs E Holdsworth, J McCarron, M White and Mrs Betty Studman.

Mr & Mrs L C Jordan were accompanied by Mrs Gash of Port Macquarie and were welcomed by Mr Warren Everson, Mrs O'Leary and Mrs W Mayhew.

Also in the official party were Mrs W Blackwell, of Austral Eden and Mrs W F Atkinson of Telegraph Point.

Mr Warren Everson apologised for the unavoidable absence of Mrs E Hunt and Mrs A Rosenbaum, Mr & Mrs Haywood and Mr & Mrs Churchwood.

Mr Everson referred to the 20 years of yeoman service given by the Secretary, Mr Scaysbrook and also paid a high tribute to the work of Mrs Scaysbrook: and Mr Scaysbrook was given a great cheer when he announced that the new hall was completely free of debt.

Mrs Jordan was presented with a lovely posy of red roses and carnations: and Mrs Gash with a shoulder-spray of pink carnations, made by Mrs Blackwell, Senior.

Mrs Scaysbrook paid a warm tribute to the work of Mr & Mrs Paddy Mayhew, Mr Cam Rudder and others previously mentioned.

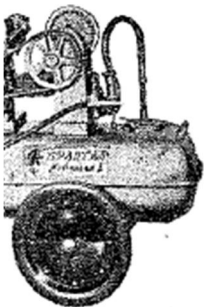

Mr Jordan, in cutting the white ribbon which stretched across the stage, congratulated all concerned on their fine achievement.

Among the large attendance were visitors from Sydney, Brisbane Hastings and Macleay.

Messrs Alexandria & Harvey were capable doorkeepers.

A delightful supper was served by Mesdames D V Everson, W Everson, Scaysbrook, Alexander, Harvey and Blackwell.

ind dozens
s for a
IN POWER SPRAYER

ack-breaking tail. It's light
gh ground and yet its 15 enough to spray 50 sheep
strike — or several fruit

fire-fighter, too — and keep ney. A little water goes a fine and you can take the mpt delivery at—

R. SYDNEY